

Why is the Democratic candidate for governor getting a pass from Iowa media & party leaders...

Nigger!

During the 83rd General Assembly (2009-2010), Sen. Jack Hatch, in an angry racist tirade used the word "nigger" repeatedly, until a clerk aggressively confronted him. Eventually outrage in the Black community grew to the point Hatch apologized. When speaking on the matter, Hatch called it a teachable moment and said, "I learned."

He really didn't know saying "nigger" repeatedly in anger on the floor of the legislature wasn't okay?

But he was never sanctioned by his fellow legislators, he was never called to account by leaders of the Iowa Democratic Party. And, now he is the gubernatorial nominee of the Iowa Democratic Party.

Iowa media refuses to report this story, even after they reported on David Duke, Trent Lott, Paula Deen, Cliven Bundy and Donald Sterling.

Why has the major media ignored this story? Why have Democratic leaders given the Donald Sterling-of-Iowa a pass?

If voters, especially Democrats, don't hold Hatch accountable at the polls, what does that say about Iowa?!

...while these non-Iowa "racists" were reported on over and over?

Had a Republican legislator done this, the reaction would have been much different.- State Rep Phyllis Thede (D).
